THE TEST OF MERIT

Barre People Are Given Convincing Proof.

No better test of any article can be made than the test of time, and this is particularly true of a kidney medicine. Doan's Kidney Pills have stood this test and stood it well. What better proof of the merits of this remedy could you demand, than the statement of a Barre resident who has been cured and has stayed cured?

Read the following:
Mrs. Annie Gibb, 31 Brooklyn street, Barre, Vt., says: "I am just as strong in my praise of Doan's Kidney Pills today as when I publicly recommended them several years ago. They cured me at that time and I am glad to say there has been no return of my old trouble. For over a year I had more or less backache, it being the result of disordered kidneys. If I brought any strain on the muscles of my back, sharp pains seized me, and I also suffered at times from headaches and dizzy spells. When I overworked or caught cold, my suffering was always more intense. I read a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills and decided to try them. I procured a box at E. A. Drown's drug store. Before I had finished the contents, the pains in my back were relieved and I felt better in every way. I have the best reason for speaking in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills and I am perfectly willing to recommend them in this way."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WILLIAMSTOWN

Congregational Church Expects to Pay Indebtedness.

The special meeting of the Congregational church last Saturday afternoon could hardly have been more pleasant, for it revealed that the way seemed clear to pay off, wholly, an indebtedness of perhaps eight hundred to ten hundred dollars, incurred in the renovation of the church building a few years ago; and, also, to pay up all arrears in the running expenses of the church for this year of 1909. All this is to be done, largely, by gifts of the family of the late J. E. Alinsworth; by the heroic efforts of the Ladies' Aid society in recent years, and by the late Henry Denny's gift of two hundred and fifty dollars to the church, added to the smaller gifts of individual attendants upon the services of this church. The debtology is likely to be "strained" when all is completed.

Mrs. L. B. Rowell has just received a new line of winter millinery goods and will be pleased to show them to all.

Keep in mind the annual sale and chicken pie supper to be held Nov. 19, 1909, at the Grange hall by the Universalist ladies. The first of next week look for full announcement in this column.

The Methodists of this place will resume worship in their renovated house of worship next Sunday, Nov. 14, under the leadership of District Superintendent Lewis of St. Johnsbury. There will be union services, both morning and evening, and we may be sure of a very cordial welcome to any and all of our citizens who desire to attend these services. We may also be sure that these exercises at the reopening of the house will be most pleasant and profitable. Let the building be filled!

Guy M. Badger has returned from a summer's work on a farm in Southington, Conn.

At 9:30 o'clock p. m. of Wednesday of this week there is to be a dinner for the benefit of our Williamstown inn, to be attended by ladies only. It is expected that 40 to 50 or more ladies will be at the tables.

A district meeting of Good Templars' lodges is to be held here on Wednesday of this week, Nov. 10, with our own lodge. The evening meeting will be open to the public, and a cordial welcome is extended to all to be present. The meetings will be in the Lynde hall.

We are glad to be told that our place is not, perhaps, likely to lose the family of the late Thomas C. Waldo, because the administrator of the estate has asked for a license from the probate court to sell the real estate, since such a license can be made to cover future, as well as present, needs.

Resolutions.

Whereas, It has been the will of the great Creator of the universe to summon one of our members to the brotherhood on high; and

Whereas, In the death of Bro. Eugene L. Marshall, Williamstown lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., has lost one of its most worthy brothers and one who was held in the highest esteem by all; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved family of our deceased brother our heartfelt and fraternal sympathy, assuring them that he who tempers the wind to the storm looks down with infinite compassion on the widows and fatherless in the hour of their desolation. Be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family of our brother, published in the Barre Daily Times, and a copy spread on the records of this lodge.

The wife of E. E. Vanorman died at St. Albans last week, the result of pneumonia. Mrs. Vanorman had been ill several days previous to accompanying her mother home, and the journey was thought to be too much for her. Deceased leaves two small children, the youngest of whom is only a few months old.

Anty Drudge Advises a Bride.

Mrs. Bride—"I'm going to have all the latest conveniences in my kitchen: rotary washing machine, copper washboiler."

Anty Drudge—"Stop, my dear! Leave out that 'washboiler.' The first thing to get is a box of Fels-Naptha soap. It's the greatest of modern conveniences. It'll save you more labor and trouble than anything else. Makes boiling clothes unnecessary, for it cleans 'em in cool or lukewarm water."

By using Fels-Naptha any woman can save hours on her day's washing.

She can be through with it in half the time required by the old-fashioned, washboiler, hard-rubbing, back-breaking way.

And instead of being worn out, she is fresh and ready for other work, or play.

Any woman can end washday drudgery for all time by using Fels-Naptha in the Fels-Naptha way, in cool or lukewarm water.

Never use hot water or boil the clothes.

You can tell the genuine Fels-Naptha by the red and green wrapper. Follow directions on the back.

About 20 called upon Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ordway, Saturday, in the form of a surprise party, and a genuine surprise it was to the host and hostess; but after all a good time was had. Dancing and cards were the order of the entertainment. Refreshments were furnished by the visiting ladies.

No Boxes For Two.

Telephone girls sometimes glory in their mistakes if there is a joke in consequence. The story is told by a telephone operator in one of the Boston exchanges about a man who asked her for the number of a local theatre.

He got the wrong number and without asking to whom he was talking, he said: "Can I get a box for two tonight?"

"A startled voice answered him at the other end of the line: 'We don't have boxes for two.'"

"Isn't this the theatre?" he called crossly.

"Why, no," was the answer, "this is an undertaking shop."

He cancelled his order for a "box for two."—Boston Record.

Kills Her Foe of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan of Haynesville, Me., "was dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For indigestion, loss of appetite, kidney trouble, lame back, female complaints, its unequalled.

Only 50c at Red Cross Pharmacy.

Battleboro wants a double track on the Central Vermont railway from there to New London, and a conference held last week between prominent officials of the Grand Trunk and Central Vermont railroads may bring about the desired result.

Friction Bearings or Ball Bearings—Which?

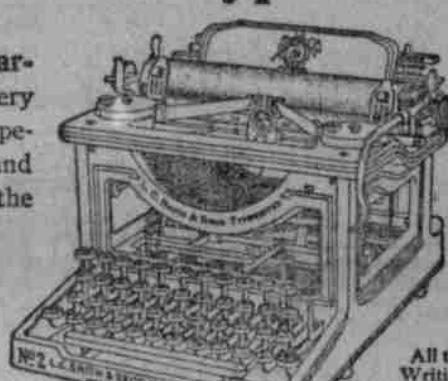

The ordinary friction bearing will wear loose. Each revolution or vibration grinds out a small portion of the bearing surface. After a while it wobbles—adjustment permanently ruined.

The New Model

L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter

is fitted with Ball Bearings throughout. Every vital wearing part—type-bar joints, carriage, and typebar segment—has the kind of bearings that thousands of operations cause to run even smoother than at first.
